Something I should mention: I've been following this guy's posts at an SMS forum, SMSpower. The only person he's ever gotten insulting with was Byuu.

Â

SMS Power has a lot of SMS authors there, and they've all done emulators nowhere near as "accurate" as his. Hell, the dude who created Meka is one of the admins. He's never demeaned their approach, at least not publicly.

Also, I feel, mudlord, your anger should be directed towards the idiot blind followers, not the emu authors. You have real reason to get irritated, but myself, I would aim it at the idiots who do most of the talking.

I.S.T., I think you should definitely read the rest of the thread if you haven't. I don't see how a lot of the things he has said can be anything but insulting. For what it's worth, I linked Charles MacDonald (as you know, big in the SMS scene and many others) to the thread and he was less than impressed with the dude.

Alright. I only saw the one post.

Â

It's possible he's just a good boy on one forum and a prick on another. I've seen that many times in life. Hell, I do that occasionally.

Â

I'll do so later. Dealing with drama on an IRC channel I Op on. =\ bump.

Â

I'm up to page four. I take back what I said, he's an ass of the highest caliber. I will say that in the one post linked, he's not an ass, though. a better example would have been anything of his on page 3 or 4. I apologize, Mudlord. I was wrong.
